Chapter 1 by Adam Muller

A misty rain fell on Kanye's face, like butter spray on a hot muffin. It made him angry.

"You cryin'?" he asked.

Silence. "I said you cryin'?" he spouted.

"Yes. I'm sorry. I'm not meaning to. It's just--nevermind." God knew his error seconds after he made it. He could feel his countenance start to redden, and withdrew into the cloud.

"Man, god. Man..god...hmm." Kanye began to do what he was best at in the entire world: he saved that deep thought. He grabbed it's arm, like it was a victim trapped deep inside the ocean's lower abdomen, and swam toward the surface to give it air.

Chapter 2 by Adam Muller

He knew only one thing. But it led to all things. So just knowing the one thing didn't make him stupid.

"I am God." Kanye whispered.

"I am a God. A God? Or just God? Not Just God, like justice. Like just--just, you know?" he said to himself. "Goddammit."

Chapter 3 by jeffyb

God decided the Kanye had too much power and needed to be humbled. He had done this in the past with people like Lucifer and Honey Boo Boo.

So he took away the one thing that gave him any legitimacy...

His money
